

We look forward to exploring Adobe Experience Manager Sites with Edge Delivery Services with you in the AEM Sites with Edge Delivery Services Trial Program. As a precursor, please review and accept the following terms governing your participation in the AEM Sites with Edge Delivery Services Trial Program and use of the AEM as a Cloud Service Sandbox.

AEM Sites with Edge Delivery Services Trial Program Terms

- 1. Agreement. If your participation in the AEM Sites with Edge Delivery Services Trial Program (“Trial Program”) is for your own individual use, you agree that your access to and use of the Trial Program and the AEM as a Cloud Service Sandbox (“Sandbox”) are governed by (A) the Adobe Experience Cloud Terms of Use; and (B) these AEM Sites with Edge Delivery Services Trial Program Terms (“Trial Terms”). If your participation in the Trial Program is on behalf of the company you are employed by or represent (“Company”), you agree that your access to and use of the Trial Program and Sandbox are governed by (A) the Enterprise Licensing terms previously agreed to by the Company and Adobe, or if the Company has not previously agreed to licensing terms then your access to and use of the Trial Program and Sandbox are governed by the General Terms available at www.adobe.com/cc-shared/assets/pdf/legal/terms/enterprise/pdfs/generalterms-na-2024v1.pdf (“General Terms”); and (B) these Trial Terms (collectively, (A) – (B) form the “Agreement”). By checking the accept box or by accessing the Trial Program or the Sandbox, you confirm your acceptance of these terms either (i) on behalf of yourself; or (ii) on behalf of yourself, the Company, and other employees of the Company (herein, “You” or “Your”) and acknowledge and agree that you have the authority to act on behalf of and bind such entity(ies).
  - 2. License. The Trial Program license term begins on the date the Sandbox is provisioned to You and will automatically expire after 30 days (the “License Term”). Adobe grants to You, for the duration of the License Term and subject to the terms of the Agreement, a non-exclusive, limited license to use the Trial Program and the Sandbox for evaluation purposes only. Adobe may terminate Your participation in, and access to, the Trial Program and Sandbox upon notice to You at any time without any liability to You. Upon expiration or termination of the License Term, you must discontinue using or accessing the Sandbox immediately. Any material, such as data, code, audio, video, text, or images, that is imported by You, or at Your direction, into the Sandbox will be deleted and will not be available upon the expiration of the License Term. If, during the License Term, Your Company executes an Adobe Sales Order to license AEM as a Cloud Service, You may continue to access the Sandbox for 60 days following the effective date of the Adobe Sales Order solely for the purpose of migrating content from the Sandbox to an AEM as a Cloud Service Sandbox.
  - 3. Restrictions. The Sandbox is provided as a shared environment for evaluation purposes only and may not be used for commercial or production purposes. You may only upload dummy data that does not include any personally identifying information, as that term is defined under applicable laws and regulations, for use in Your evaluation. You may not perform any performance testing on the Sandbox environment as scalability is limited and is not an accurate representation of production environment performance. The Sandbox will not be connected to any dedicated AEM as a Cloud Service environment(s) or Your existing Adobe Products and Services.
- Notwithstanding any terms of the Agreement to the contrary, no express or implied warranties will apply to the product and services offered as part of the Trial Program; all products and services are provided “as-is”, and no technical or other support is included during the License Term. For purposes of the trial license granted herein, AEM Sites with Edge Delivery Services and the Sandbox do not constitute Indemnified Technology.
- 4. Feedback. Adobe may solicit feedback (e.g., ideas, suggestions, proposals, or bug reports) from You throughout the License Term via surveys and other means (“Feedback”). You grant to Adobe a non-exclusive, irrevocable, worldwide, royalty-free, sublicensable and transferable license to use, copy, publicly display, modify, publicly perform, publish, and reproduce the Feedback.
